City First Foundation is proud to present the first of three distinct events featuring front-line experts and changemakers across our community sharing their unique insights and lessons learned as we collectively pave the way to social and economic equity.

Learn how mission driven institutions and individuals are leveraging capital to accelerate community and economic development by growing small businesses and nonprofits. All of which create jobs, support social mobility and reduce disparities for individuals and families. Explore the challenges and opportunities in achieving equity through local impact investing with the public, private, nonprofit and philanthropic communities.
